PROTECTIVE ORDER

Pursuant to the agreement of counsel for the parties, the Court hereby enters a Protective Order consistent with the terms of the signed Confidentiality Stipulation filed with the Court on September 13, 2010. Specifically, the Court hereby orders that any disclosure of attorney-client privilege or work-product information does not constitute a waiver and none of the produced information will be used as evidence to support a claim of waiver in this action or in any other federal court, state court, or arbitration proceeding even if such proceeding does not involve parties or counsel in this action.
